

Meeting Space Fees

Fees for Community or Non-Profit Groups

Fontana Regional Library does not charge community or non-profit groups for use of library meeting space. Donations from these groups are accepted and appreciated.

Charges for excessive damage to the meeting space or for additional cleaning will be billed to the person who signed the meeting space contract.

Fees for Social Events or Events Sponsored by For-Profit Individuals

A fee of $25.00 will be charged for up to four hours for each event scheduled in a library meeting space.

A fee of $50.00 will be charged for over four hours for each event scheduled in a library meeting space.

Charges for excessive damage to the meeting space or for additional cleaning will be billed to the person who signed the meeting space contract.

Fees for Events Sponsored By For-Profit Organizations

A fee of $75.00 will be charged for up to four hours for each event scheduled in a library meeting space.

A fee of $150.00 will be charged for over four hours for each event scheduled in a library meeting space.

Charges for excessive damage to the meeting space or for additional cleaning will be billed to the person who signed the meeting space contract.