Library Advisory Board Member

Job Description: The county library boards and self-directed boards are advisory boards for the local libraries within the Fontana Regional Library system. Members of these boards have no legal responsibility or authority for the control or management of the library. The advisory boards promote the library within the community, and advise local governments within the service area to ensure adequate funding and facilities for the provision of library service. Members must meet all qualifications established by Counties and local bylaws. Members are expected to attend all regularly scheduled and special meetings of the board. Members serve without compensation.
